

CLASSIFIED ADS

FOR SALE—1941 Ford Sedan. In good shape. Will sell cheap, on easy terms. Five good tires.
R. E. REDDING

FOR SALE—A second hand Bind-er. Will sell cheap or trade for young cattle.
T. R. RICHARDSON
Appomattox, Va.
RD 2, Box 72

For Sale—1 cabinet Radio, in good condition. 1 Table and several chairs. Will sell cheap.
Mrs. G. L. Doss

TOMATO PLANTS for sale. Nice cold grown plants. Call and see them. Mrs. G. W. Lewis' Farm.
Appomattox Plant Co.
Appomattox, Va.
(3-4-1p)

Lost! Lost! Sometime Sunday, a multicolored Schaefer fountain pen, medium point. If found return to R. Q. Laving, Appomattox, Va., and receive a reward.

Salemen Wanted
GOOD ROUTE AVAILABLE of 3-500 Rawleigh consumers. No experience needed to start. Large stable, clean big profits. Permanent. Full time. Write Rawleigh's, Dept. VAF-1104, Richmond, Va.
(3-4, 11, 18p)

Flitting Station Owners & Operators
Attention! Is gasoline rationing cutting down your earnings making it necessary for you to make a new connection? If so, an independent gasoline dealership with unlimited merchandise available, highest farm buying power in history, ample gasoline allowance, offers sparkling opportunities. A money making dealership in your locality requiring no moving may be possible. No investment required. Write Watkins, Box 5071, Richmond, Virginia, for full details—all replies confidential.

NOTICE—Have received price advance on all Veneer Logs. Will like to see all those having timber for sale. Now is the time to sell. Am at Appomattox every day.
O. T. JAMERSON
Appomattox, Va.
(5-28-21p)

Picture Puzzle

WHAT SPOILED CHILD IS THIS?

"dun dun" (Bell Spoken—WPA Service)

Picture Puzzle

WHAT ADVICE TO EGG DEALERS IS THIS?

"Applaud applause" (Bell Spoken—WPA Service)

Lee Theatre

Appomattox

Friday, Saturday, June 8, 9: John Cade Brown in "Law of the Range" Also "A Yank On The Burma Road"

Mon, Tues, June 8, 9: Hedy Lamarr in "Hi, My Pal"

Wed, Thurs, June 10, 11: Judy Canova in "Sleeping Cat"

Fri, Sat, June 12, 13: Don Barry in "Aviation Terror" and Joe Smith in "All American" (note: Every true American should see this picture)

Mayas Warned Of 'Great War'

Writings on Sheets of Gold In 'Lost City' Described To Explorers.

SANTA ANA, CALIF.—This is a tale about some little men and little women who haven't heard about the war. They have never heard of Hitler, or Hirohito, or Germany or Japan, or even the United States. For hundreds of years they have lived in the jungles of the "forbidden land" of virtually unexplored Chiapas, Mexico.

There, where it rains every day and the great trees drip water continuously, live the last of the Mayas who fled before the conquest of Cortez.

That was the last war of which they knew. But carefully guarded in their "lost city" is the golden library which told them of a great war to come.

When, last fall, the Mayas had their first visitors in a long time, the explorers, Dana and Ginger Lamb, of Santa Ana, explorers of 15 years' jungle experience, found evidence of a previous "expedition that did not return."

The Lambs were looking for a pass in the high mountains. Then they saw "Kentin."

The long-haired little figure was perched in a tree hunting monkeys with bow and arrow.

After climbing monkey-like down the tree, he greeted them, laughing and jabbering. Then he placed the knuckles of his left hand against his heart.

This gesture of friendship was followed by signs to indicate he wanted them to return next day at the same time—noon.

Next noon Kentin brought with him "the fiercest-visaged savage" the Lambs had ever seen.

He was Chan-Kin, chief of the tribe. His hair was longer than Kentin's. He had a narrow, firm mouth, sharp nose and quick eyes. He wore a feather in his nose.

The Lambs set off after the Mayas to visit their village. But it was not the lost city they were permitted to visit. Instead, they found a village scattered over several miles. Each family lived about a mile away from its nearest neighbor.

Chief Dana: "The country well deserves the sinister name of the 'forbidden land.' Everything is wet and mouldy. There are bugs by the millions. Mud, bugs and rain. But by bit the Lambs learned snatches of Maya legendary.

"There was indeed a lost city. On certain days of the year the Mayas went there to worship.

They learned that the Maya religion was remarkably like Christianity, encompassing teachings of 'the great flood and the Son of God.'

But the time came when the Lambs had to leave. The little people did not want them to go, and insisted on accompanying them part way. Then they grew frightened of approaching any nearer to the 'land of the bad people (civilization).'

When the Lambs learned the 'bad country' they reached the United States was at war.

Then Dana recalled the words of the chief who had never heard of Hitler, about the golden library. The writings had said that the people in civilization were very bad and would destroy themselves, that water would come and wash clean the land, that people would die because they chose the wrong chiefs, that men's hearts were so full of bad there was no room for good.

But, added Chan-Kin, the writings told that after great suffering people would become humble and the great true writings would be shown to the world.

Profane Taxpayer Fined
Under 1745 British Law LONDON—Fred Walker, a war reserve constable, was fined 2s at Aldford in Lincolnshire for tossing money at a tax collector with a profane comment. The act under which the sentence was passed became a law in 1745.

It seems that even two centuries ago people resented being called upon to pay taxes. The act provides for a fine of 1s for a day laborer, 2s for any person under the degree of gentleman and 5s to 5s for a gentleman.

Tin-Saving Invention
Of Housewife Hailed BROOKLINE, MASS.—With a hairpin and a piece of old paper, Mrs. Martha Peabody Keith, a housewife, has invented a bottle cap which is expected to save 100,000,000 pounds of tin annually.

THE TIMES-VIRGINIAN, APPOMATTOX, VIRGINIA

RECEIVES DEGREE AT FARM VILLE TEACHERS COLLEGE

Miss Katherine Burge, of Appomattox

When, last fall, the Mayas had their first visitors in a long time, the explorers, Dana and Ginger Lamb, of Santa Ana, explorers of 15 years' jungle experience, found evidence of a previous "expedition that did not return."

The Lambs were looking for a pass in the high mountains. Then they saw "Kentin."

The long-haired little figure was perched in a tree hunting monkeys with bow and arrow.

After climbing monkey-like down the tree, he greeted them, laughing and jabbering. Then he placed the knuckles of his left hand against his heart.

This gesture of friendship was followed by signs to indicate he wanted them to return next day at the same time—noon.

Next noon Kentin brought with him "the fiercest-visaged savage" the Lambs had ever seen.

He was Chan-Kin, chief of the tribe. His hair was longer than Kentin's. He had a narrow, firm mouth, sharp nose and quick eyes. He wore a feather in his nose.

The Lambs set off after the Mayas to visit their village. But it was not the lost city they were permitted to visit. Instead, they found a village scattered over several miles. Each family lived about a mile away from its nearest neighbor.

Chief Dana: "The country well deserves the sinister name of the 'forbidden land.' Everything is wet and mouldy. There are bugs by the millions. Mud, bugs and rain. But by bit the Lambs learned snatches of Maya legendary.

"There was indeed a lost city. On certain days of the year the Mayas went there to worship.

They learned that the Maya religion was remarkably like Christianity, encompassing teachings of 'the great flood and the Son of God.'

But the time came when the Lambs had to leave. The little people did not want them to go, and insisted on accompanying them part way. Then they grew frightened of approaching any nearer to the 'land of the bad people (civilization).'

When the Lambs learned the 'bad country' they reached the United States was at war.

Then Dana recalled the words of the chief who had never heard of Hitler, about the golden library. The writings had said that the people in civilization were very bad and would destroy themselves, that water would come and wash clean the land, that people would die because they chose the wrong chiefs, that men's hearts were so full of bad there was no room for good.

But, added Chan-Kin, the writings told that after great suffering people would become humble and the great true writings would be shown to the world.

Profane Taxpayer Fined
Under 1745 British Law LONDON—Fred Walker, a war reserve constable, was fined 2s at Aldford in Lincolnshire for tossing money at a tax collector with a profane comment. The act under which the sentence was passed became a law in 1745.

It seems that even two centuries ago people resented being called upon to pay taxes. The act provides for a fine of 1s for a day laborer, 2s for any person under the degree of gentleman and 5s to 5s for a gentleman.

Tin-Saving Invention
Of Housewife Hailed BROOKLINE, MASS.—With a hairpin and a piece of old paper, Mrs. Martha Peabody Keith, a housewife, has invented a bottle cap which is expected to save 100,000,000 pounds of tin annually.

Hixburg News In Paragraph

Hixburg, June 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Switzer and family were supper guests Thursday in the home of H. M. Marshall.

Miss Kitty Carson is spending the summer at her home here after attending Lynchburg College last term.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ford called in the home of J. R. Marshall Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Topping visited Mrs. B. R. Young yesterday.

C. B. Carson spent last week-end with relatives in Lynchburg. Mrs. E. H. Carson also spent several days last week in Lynchburg.

A large crowd attended the baccalaureate sermon at the Pamplin high school Sunday night.

Mrs. Wilson Ritz has returned from New York.

Mrs. E. M. Sears returned to her home here from Salem.

Mrs. J. R. Marshall, Mrs. C. B. Carson and son called in the home of Mrs. J. T. Ritz Saturday P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Childers and family of Lynchburg and Mrs. Winston Ferguson, of Hollywood spent Sunday with Mrs. H. J. Cawington.

THURSDAY JUNE 4, 1942

Recent guests in the home of E. H. Carson were Misses Cleo Ray, Mary Rives, Black, Lucille Dickerson, Mrs. Magie Alsop, Joe Alsop and Frances Hix.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Gilliam, of Lynchburg spent the week-end with their sister here.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirkendahl, of Buckingham visited Sunday afternoon in the home of H. M. Marshall.

Graduation exercises at the Pamplin high school will be held Friday night, June 5th, at 8:30 o'clock. Mr. Montgomery, president of Lynchburg College, will be the guest speaker.

Renew your subscription.

Buy War Bonds and Stamps.

Phone 30 with Personal.

Paramount
Lynchburg, Va.
NOW PLAYING
"THE MALE ANIMAL"
Olivia DeHavilland
Henry Fonda
Joan Leslie
Starting Sunday
"THE SPOILERS"

GUGGENHEIMER'S
It's Thrifty! Smart! New!
Shop by Mail Service
WRITE PRUDENCE PENN — PERSONAL SHOPPER
It's Guggenheimer's answer to the gas rationing, tire and automobile freezing, and a welcome one to you who are unable to come to Lynchburg so frequently! Write us for what you want...and your order will be delivered to your door.

Below are Four "Best Sellers" from Thousands of Wanted Items in our Store

GUGGENHEIMER'S
Please send me ()
TAILOR TOWN
CHAMBRAYS
3.99
They're woven and sanforized! They're smart and practical! They're an investment! Superiorly tailored with generous seams, full-yoke backs, ginked seams. Easy to wash and iron! Rose, blue, green, tan.
Street Floor
Size 14-42
NAME _____
Address _____
SIZES _____ COLORS _____ CHG _____ CASH _____

GUGGENHEIMER'S
Please send me ()
DOROTHY GRAY
HOT WEATHER
COLOGNE
Big Bottle... $2 Value
1.00
Limited Time Special! Plus 10% Tax!
Street Floor

Keep cool and collected through sticky hot weather! Swish Dorothy Gray Hot Weather Cologne on temples, wrists, pulse points, all over you after showers! Wonderfully refreshing CHOICE OF 5 FRAGRANCES: Jambou Bouquet, Rose Geranium, Natural Sweet Spice, Jas de Bouquet.
Street Floor

GUGGENHEIMER'S
Please send me () sets
14-Pc. GLASS
REFRIGERATOR
SET 89¢
Regularly 1.29
Limited Time Special
Street Floor

Help your refrigerator do a good job of conserving food! Set of seven glass containers, 12 in. x 6 in. x 4 in. sizes, each with a heavy glass base. They stack snugly to save space.
Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. White, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. Q. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. U. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. X. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. Y. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Smith.

GUGGENHEIMER'S
boxes Please send me ()
PERSONALIZED
STATIONERY
50 Sheets
50 Envelopes
1.25
With name and address or 3-letter monogram
Perfect graduation gift, beautifully boxed fine stationery, hand-printed, hand-deckled edges in note, folder or flat letter sizes. Brown, gray, cream, blue, rose. (State second choice of color)
Street Floor

Help your refrigerator do a good job of conserving food! Set of seven glass containers, 12 in. x 6 in. x 4 in. sizes, each with a heavy glass base. They stack snugly to save space.
Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. White, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. Q. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. U. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. X. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. Y. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Smith.

Guggenheimer's 7th & Main Lynchburg, Va.

TIMES - VIRGINIAN

A Live Weekly Newspaper, Serving the Heart of Virginia's Great Dark Tobacco Belt, at Historic Appomattox, Where War Ended on April 9th, 1865.

VOLUME 50 NUMBER 24. $1.50 Per Year. 5c Copy APPOMATTOX, VIRGINIA THURSDAY JUNE 11, 1942 ESTABLISHED 1862

17 INDUCTED THIS WEEK; ARMY DOUBLES QUOTA

Statewide Test Blackout Set for Next Wednesday

17 of This Group Inducted Into Army Tuesday

It is expected that the Army will call upon Appomattox county for more than 100 men during July and August, as induction is rushed all over the nation to push the Army up to 4,500,000 men at once.

The County's June quota was 81 men. 17 were inducted Tuesday of this week. Several others will be inducted.

A tentative July quota of 42 white men and 10 colored men had been indicated for Appomattox county. No formal call, however, has been received. It has been information that quotas would be doubled for July and August, making it safe to guess that over 100 will be called by August 1. There is a possibility that the figure will be considerably over 100.

Meanwhile, the county Selective Service board was in session this morning, making plans for the preliminary examination of more registrants.

The board will shortly make plans for the registration of 18 and 19 year old men on June 30th.

VOLUNTEER INTO NAVY
William Phelps and Henry Theodore Terry, Jr. of this county, have volunteered for service in the United States Navy.

Had To Leave By Auto
So large was the group, 26, leaving here Tuesday for examination at the Richmond induction center that they could not be transported by the regular bus facilities. Three passenger automobiles were pressed into service and carried the men as far as Cumberland Court House, where they were met by a special bus.

TODAY'S WAR NEWS AT A GLANCE
Japs tone down extent of aerial loss in Midway Island scrap with U. S. force. Our Navy says Japs lost thousands of men as well as planes and warships.

Warships of U. S. Navy serving with British to guard supply route across North Atlantic.

Germans kill every man in Czech town in reprisal for assassination of Heydrich.

Sevastopol holding under fierce Nazi siege.

MISSION STUDY CLASS
A Mission Study Class for the W. M. Y. W. A. and the Women's Business Circle of Liberty Baptist church will be taught at the home of Mrs. H. Frederick Jones on Monday June 15 and 22, at 7:30 in the evening. The book will be divided into two parts and will be taught by Mrs. Helen Welch. The subject will be "The Book of Acts." All ladies of the church are invited to attend.

PHILLIPS SECRETARIAL COLLEGE BANQUET
The annual undergraduate-alumni banquet of Phillips Secretarial College is to be held Thursday, June 18, at the Virginia Hotel, Lynchburg.

Entertainment features of the banquet program will include a vocal solo by Miss Dolly Vaden, a student of the college; and a program of music by Mr. Hershey Basham.

The wives and husbands of faculty and administration staff members will be guests of the college.

Awards for proficiency will be made to the students now attending the college and to the alumni who have entered Government, Business and Professional offices since June 1st, 1941.

TOMATOES RIPE!
Rev. R. E. Redding brought a ripe tomato from his garden by the Times Virginia office this morning. One of the first seen here this year.

HANSON—GARRETTE
The wedding of Miss Alfra Josephine Garrette, daughter of Mr. Monroe L. Garrette, and George Ed. Hanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Frederick Hanson, of Hurley, South Dakota, took place June 7th, in Staunton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Edgar Allen Potts, in the presence of the immediate family and a few friends.

Mr. Hanson is a graduate of Galatin College, Washington, D. C. Both were affiliated with the Virginia School for the Deaf and Blind last year, where they plan to continue their work after spending the most of their vacation in South Dakota.

U. S. declares war on Hungary, Bulgaria and Rumania.

Giant Hospital Gadget
CLEVELAND—A giant shell built once used by a sanitarium for treating patients with tuberculosis, is being dismantled and its 1,000 tons of metal will go to the mills as scrap.

It was erected 13 years ago at a cost reported as $1,000,000. It is in planing disrepair under air pressure. Five stories high and 64 feet in diameter, it contained 40 rooms and baths and was equipped with an elaborate system of compressors and motors.

Three smaller globes also will be razed.

Present gas ration cards to be replaced around July 1st.

TOURIST HIKES
A tourist determined to see the Appomattox Surrender Grounds recently was not thwarted by rationing. Stopping over between buses, the tourist walked the two miles to the Surrender Grounds, and hiked several more miles over the historic area, with Park Superintendent H. A. Gurney. He then walked back to Appomattox...about six miles of walking.

Renew your subscription.
Phone 30 with Personal.
Holiday Lake now open
Appomattox is a growing town!

THIS PIG BANK'S UNSAFE!
Invest your money in United States WAR BONDS AND STAMPS!
U. S. Treasury Department
Speed wastes gasoline.

Present gas ration cards to be replaced around July 1st.